

Be a careful detective in order to locate the answers to the following questions.

Bears, Scouts, and Toboggans (History)

1. Looking at the photos, map, and a brochure of Stone Park, name two things that once were in Stone Park, or were planned for Stone Park, but are no longer here. _____

River Aquarium

1. Name two types (species) of fish that live in our aquarium. _____
2. What species is the largest fish in the aquarium? _____

Wetland Scene

1. Is this area more closely related to a prairie, woodland, or marsh? _____
2. What kinds of life are found here? _____

These bluffs are a great curiosity...

1. Name a plant found in the Loess Hills. _____
2. What are the reptiles found in this exhibit? _____

Discovery Area

1. What was one of the animal sounds you heard? _____
2. Name one type of live animal we have inside the nature center. _____

Wind Sculpture

1. Of what material are the Loess Hills made? _____

Children of the Loess

1. What can be found in the soil? _____

Geological Timeline--Right Under Your Feet

1. What were some life forms of the Cretaceous Period (100 million years ago)?

2. What time period did fish first begin to appear in the fossil record? _____

Prairie or Imposter?

1. Name a prairie plant. _____

Beehive

1. What do the worker bees collect? _____
2. Name the three types of bees. _____

Special Delivery

1. Name two ways plants can be pollinated. _____

Survival Gear

1. Where does the plains pocket mouse get the water it drinks? _____
2. Where do plains spadefoot toads spend most of their life? _____

On the Edge

1. What is endangered? _____
2. Name one plant and one animal that is endangered. _____

Underground Prairie

1. Name an animal that may live in an old badger den. _____
2. Name a bird of the prairie. _____

Battleground

1. Before the Europeans settled here, were there more grasses or trees on the hills? _____
2. How does fire help the prairie? _____

The First People

1. What clues (artifacts) are left behind that give us knowledge of earlier cultures of people?

2. Which culture in this area used a rock called pipestone? _____

Prairie Medicine

1. Which plant was used for soap? _____
2. Should you pick these plants and use them today? _____ Why or why not?

Woodland Diorama

1. Name an animal in the forest. _____

Branching Out

1. What do tree rings tell you about a tree? _____
2. Name a tree found in the woodlands. _____

Bird Wingspan

1. What is the wingspan of a great-horned owl? _____
2. Which bird's wingspan is closest to your own? _____

On the Wing

1. Name one bird that migrates. _____

We hope you enjoyed the Junior League Legacy Gallery!! Thanks for visiting.
Please return your clipboard and pencil!